Volunteer Position Details

Title for Opportunity	Community Members to Teach a Variety of Classes
Worksite Location	HowardCenter's Resource Center, 31 Swift Street, Burlington
Position Supervisor	Jayne Weber
Position Contact	Kesta Perras
Contact Phone	(802) 488-6913
Contact Email Address	kestap@howardcenter.org

Volunteer Job Description

We are looking for volunteers who have a hobby or talent that they would like to share with our clients with developmental disabilities (computer, budgeting, knitting, cooking, homemaking skills, arts & crafts, etc). Most clients attending classes will have a support worker with them to help personalize instructions and a Resource Center Coordinator will also be on site. Classes run on a monthly basis and occur throughout the day so there is plenty of flexibility when it comes to scheduling. Our clients love to learn, so please come help us teach.

Benefits of the opportunity:

Help enable us to most successfully meet the needs of the community, and in doing so, empower our clients to live full, rich lives.

Qualifications, Education, and Experience

A particular hobby or talent and the desire to teach others

Prospective volunteers may be asked to participate in a screening process.
