When Survivors Give Birth

with Selena Shelley, MA, LMHC, CD, LCCE

A training for professionals on working with trauma survivors before, during, and after birth.

September 22, 2022 | 8:30am–4:30pm EDT

Foundational Training

A foundational training for professionals serving pregnant, birthing, and postpartum families. This training gives nurses, doulas, midwives, social workers, doctors, psychotherapists, childbirth educators, and others the resources and tools they need to better serve their clients or patients (many of whom may not disclose a history of sexual abuse).

FACILITATED BY SELENA SHELLEY, MA, LMHC, CD, LCCE

Selena has over two decades of experience as a case manager, psychotherapist, birth doula, educator, and trauma consultant working with pregnant, birthing, and postpartum trauma survivors. As a When Survivors Give Birth Approved Trainer and Adjunct Faculty in the Department of Midwifery at Bastyr University, she helps professionals learn how to work more easily and effectively with survivors during this transformative time in their lives.
